THE VALUE I BRING

Customer-first judgment: I balance empathy with policies, protect the customer relationship, and communicate next steps without overpromising.

Operational ownership: I track the details behind each case, coordinate across teams, and keep responsibility until the issue reaches a clear outcome.

Clear communication: I translate technical or operational information into polished, natural language for customers, colleagues, and business owners.

Process thinking: I turn repeat questions into useful templates, FAQs, SOPs, and escalation paths that improve consistency and speed.

SELECTED EXPERIENCE

International E-commerce Support | Multiple Retail Brands

Challenge: Different e-commerce businesses required accurate support across distinct products, policies, order workflows, and customer expectations.

- Supported brands in home-improvement and consumer-product categories without compromising confidential account information
- Prioritized urgent and aging cases while maintaining a calm, personalized tone
- Managed order concerns, complaints, returns, replacements, shipping updates, warranty cases, and product questions
- Coordinated behind the scenes while protecting confidential operational and supplier information
- Applied consistent support principles while adapting tone, templates, and escalation routes to each brand

Education Technology Support | Digital Learning

Challenge: Instructors and learners needed accurate help across connected LMS and publisher platforms.

- Investigated course access, pairing, assignments, and grade-sync concerns
- Guided users through settings and troubleshooting in clear, step-by-step language
- Validated accounts and case history before recommending a resolution
- Escalated technical issues with complete documentation and useful context

E-commerce & Tiered Customer Service | TaskUs, ResultsCX & Concentrix

Challenge: High-volume environments required speed, empathy, product knowledge, and dependable results.

- Built substantial hands-on e-commerce customer-support experience at TaskUs
- Supported order, product, account, delivery, return, and general customer-service concerns
- Progressed from frontline support to complex Tier 2 and specialized technical work
- Earned top-performer recognition based on customer satisfaction and resolution performance
- Handled complaints and escalations while keeping conversations constructive
- Supported onboarding and knowledge transfer for other team members

HOW I WORK

- 1 Learn your business
- 2 Organize the workflow
- 3 Communicate with care
- 4 Improve what repeats
